SEVENTH–DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel - Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 6, July 30 to August 5, 1972.
Subject: "The Attempted Chance."
Scripture Text: "Jesus Christ the same yesterday,and today, and forever." Hebrews 13:8.
This text reveals to us that Christ never changes. Take a glance at your calander - Saturday is still the Seventh Day -- the last day of the week. God has placed His finger upon that. and though many have tried to do just this but in vain. Those who have attempted to change the Sabbath have by so doing tried to exalt themselves above the Lord. The vast majority of people today are keeping the first day of the week. This practice raises many questions So let us take a quick look at what the Bible, God's Word, has to say about it.
Sabbath School 10:00 a.m.
Worship Service 11:15 a.m.
Evangelistic Services will continue 3 nights each week. Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.
We invite our brothers and sisters of all denominations to join us in the "Little Friendly Church" on Court Street in Appomattox. Once you come you will not wish to miss these timely messages from God's Word for these troublesome days in which we are living. Services begin at 7:45 p.m. Films are shown each night, you will enjoy the beautiful hymns and music.

Revival At Early's Chapel

The Early's Chapel United Methodist Church of Sherwill Community, Concord, will begin their revival services on Sunday night, August 6th and will continue through Saturday, August 12th.
Guest speaker will be Ronald Davidson, pastor of the the New Bethal - Trinity Charge in Altavista.
Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. each evening with 15 minutes of singing by the children.
The services will conclude on Saturday night with an old fashioned hymn fest featuring the Rocks Quartet of Appomattox.

Teaches Parliamentary Class In Concord

Mrs. Roy L. Webber, from Roanoke, President of the Virginia Association of The National Association of Parliamentarians presented a workshop class in parliamentary procedures on July 25, at the Concord Elementary School.
The Con-Terra Womans Club is sponsor of this workshop class which will include two sessions and is opened to all interested clubs in the community.
Mrs. Webber is the wife of the Mayor of Roanoke, She has taught classes and held many positions at Green Memorial United Methodist Church for 16 years. She is the only official woman lay leader in the Roanoke District. She was named the MOTHER OF THE YEAR in religious affairs in 1957.
Mrs. Webber said, "In club groups that I have met with, their greatest need in Parliamentary law is to talk, think, and promote more study. Remember that 'a little knowledge is a dangerous thing'. These classes are not only for club officers but for all club members. You can accomplish anything you want, in any meeting, if you know the proper Native Of Pamplin Named President Of Company In N. C.

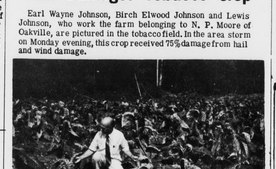
Phillip R. Lucado of Pamplin, a 1963 graduate of Appomattox High School, employed as Sales Engineer for Bullock and Humble Compan y for 7 years has been named President of a new company formed by them.
Lucado has passed examinations for Mechanical Contractor in both North Carolina and South Carolina. He is married to the former Sue Gilbert and they are the parents of two children.
The following is a news release printed in the Greensboro Record on Monday July 24, regarding his promotion:
"A new Greensboro corporation has been formed for the special purpose of building environmental air handling equipment.
The firm is an offshoot of Bullock and Humble Inc., mechanical contractors, and, for the time being, is to be housed in the facilities of that firm at 521 Banner Ave.
James R. Bullock, president and treasurer of Bullock and Humble, is chairman of the new company, Environmental Air Systems Inc. He said the firm will at first specialized in the manufacturing of make-up air units of from 5,000 to 120,000 cubic feet per minute to supply or replenish air exhausted from buildings.
"We realize that there is an increasing demand for these units, and we believe that with our experience, our reputation for quality and service, along with our most favorable location and labor rates, we should be able to get a large share of this business in the Southeast," Bullock said in announcing that the new company has been formed.
Officers, in addition to Bullock are Phillip R. Lucado, president, Edgar H. Humble, Vice president, and Ivy F. Lowe, secretary. Humble is Vice president and secretary of Bullock and Humble."

Class Of 1964 Has Reunion

The graduating class of 1964 held its 8 year reunion Saturday Aug. 29th, at W. W. Burke's Lake. The members began arriving at 2 p.m. and all enjoyed the fellowship of past classmates. Dinner was catered by Parkway Restaurant, Coach Gordon Bragg was the only faculty member attending.
Watkins Abbitt, acting president, called a business meeting to order and Merlyn Carrico was elected new corresponding secretary in the absence of the past secretary. The class unanimously voted to send a letter to the Appomattox County School Board proposing that the new high school be named Earl J. Smith High School in honor of the late Earl J. Smith.
All members expressed regrets at the recent illness of Mrs. Carrie Gilbert and wished her a speedy recovery.
Also the class voted to hold a 10-year reunion, which is to be held in two years. Planning will begin next summer.
We wish to express our thanks to Bill Burk for the use of his lake, Mr. Paulette for the delious meal, Coach Bragg for his support and all members who attended.
For those members who could not attend, we hope you will make plans now to attend our 10-year reunion, summer of 1974.
Merlyn M. Carroll, Sec.

Hail Damages Tobacco Crop

Earl Wayne Johnson, Birch Elwood Johnson and Lewis Johnson, who work the farm belonging to N. P. Moore of Oakville, are pictured in the tobacco field. In the area storm on Monday evening, this crop received 75% damage from hail and wind damage.



JAMES A. SMITH, EXTENSION Agent for Appomattox County, looks over the damaged tobacco crop on the Twyman Phelps Farm. In the flood of June 21st, Mr. Phelps lost his entire corn crop and in the storm on Monday evening he lost at least 75% of his tobacco crop from hail and wind damage. McArthur Harris worked the tobacco crop.
